Dear Secretary/Captain

We are pleased to present the following prospectus for the Athlone Regatta 2023, which is taking place at Coosan Point on Saturday 17th June 2023. We have based our format on the proposed Rowing Ireland 1k Classic for Masters and younger junior rowers.

The following is the list of events for men and women we propose to run on the day;

| | 1X | 2X | 4X+ | 4X- | 4+ | 8X+ | 8+ |
|---------------|----|----|-----|-----|----|-----|----|
| Masters | √ | √ | √ | | | | √ |
| Mixed Masters | | | √ | | | | |
| J13 | √ | | √ | | | | |
| J14 | √ | √ | √ | | | √ | |
| J15 | √ | √ | √ | | | √ | √ |
| J16 | √ | √ | √ | | | | √ |
| J18 | √ | √ | | √ | √ | | √ |

Please note as follows; The course is buoyed and 1000m for all crews.

- . All races will be straight finals with flying starts and finishing at Coosan Point.
- . All races will be run under Rowing Ireland rules. In conjunction with the Rowing Ireland tracker a timetable will be published shortly after entries close at 19:00hrs on 7th June 2023.
- . The schedule of events should be carefully examined before making entries as changes will not be made for crew or equipment clashes.

Entry fees are €10.00 per seat (cox's no charge) payable in advance as follows;

- 1- By cheque to Athlone Boat Club
- 2- By EFT or Credit Card, contact Regatta Co-Ordinator for details
