Location of National Rowing Centre (Aerial View)

The regatta is a two-day event to be held on Saturday 22nd and Sunday 23rd June 2024.

It will be run as a Grand League Regatta over a 2,000-meter 6-lane Albano course. The event will be the last chance to race on the NRC course before the 1km Classic and Irish Rowing Championship Regattas which are to take place in July. Due to a large entry expected and the time constraints of the regatta we will only run A and B Finals. Any winning category outside of these finals will be awarded based on the initial time trial race.

This regatta is also facilitating the trials for the Home International Regatta which takes place on 27nd July. If you have athletes participating in the trials you must enter Division 1, 1x or 2-. The Cork regatta committee is not involved in the selection process and we are only facilitating the trials as part of our regatta.

Club Tents are permitted and encouraged. Changing facilities at the National Rowing Centre is limited and we would encourage club tents to be used for this purpose.

WC Facilities:

There will be a number of portaloos on site for the event. There are limited WC's available within the NRC building itself.

Bow Numbers:

Collection of Bow Numbers will be at regatta control and there is a refundable deposit of €10 per number. These numbers are the property of Rowing Ireland hence why there is a refundable deposit for each. Loss of numbers will result in loss of deposit.

The following pages contain the events that are being offered along with the sequence of events. A provisional timetable will be available on a separate document. Due to the large number of events and expected entries, clubs are asked to study the timetable carefully and ensure that they will have enough equipment and time between events for swaps. We will be unable to hold any races on the day for latecomers.

Cork City Regatta Committee are looking forward to welcoming you to the event and if you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact myself at Secretary@CorkRegatta.com
