Galway Regatta 2023

Advance Notice – 8X+ Events

Unfortunately, due to safety concerns, Galway Regatta will not be offering any 8X+ events at this year's regatta.

Following discussions with the Umpires at the start, in launches and the Regatta committee, it has been decided not to offer any events in this category.

We know this may upset clubs and rowers but its for their own safety that we make this decision. The crews were simply finding it too difficult to not only get on the stakeboats but generally back them into the start area, especially with the cross wind that can happen at the regatta starting area.

We apologise for any inconvenience this may cause.
