

Head of the River, 29 Jan 2022

Hi Everyone,

We are looking forward to meeting you all tomorrow, just a few final points;

- Please get your trailers here early, 08:00 at the latest.
- For those arriving late (not trailers) there is parking at Pairc Ui Chaoimh
- Captains / coxes meeting at 10:30
- Top notch food will be available at Shandon all day
- Please arrive at the start at the designated time, so make sure you launch well in advance
- Prize giving – rather than having this at the end of the we will do this after each Head. Once any discrepancies are resolved we will publish results online and crews can collect their pennant. Unfortunately, we just have one ceremonial pennant, we will post the real ones next week.

See you tomorrow

Pat Arrigan
